

MYFANWY

English words by the late "Cuhelyn"

Music by Joseph Parry (1841–1903)

arranged for SATB & Piano by Barry Peter Ould

Moderato
mf

S 1. Why shoots wrath's light - ning, O! -

A 2. What have I done, oh, cru - el

T 3. Full be thy heart with joy for

B¹₂

Piano mf

fan - wy, From these eyes? what clouds thy brow? — Those fair ones. Thine - it e'en a frown from thee? — Am

May time ne'er cy - pher on thy brow; — Through cheeks that once with love blush'd on me, Why — are they pale and blood - less

I too fond, or art thou fic - kle? Or — play'st thou but to 8 life may beau - ty's rose and li - ly Dance on thy heart cheeks as now? Why those lips that bare my kis - ses? Where me? my own by word and hon - our, And 8 For - get thy bro - ken vows, and ne - ver Al -

p lurks the smile that won my heart? Why wilt be mute, O! wilt thou not thy word ful - fil? Thou need'st not from O low thy wake - ful consc - ience tell That thou mis -

f

my My - fan - wy, I speak, love, once more be - fore we part.
 my My - wy, I would not have thee 'gainst thy will.
 lead or wrong me; O! my My - fan - wy, fare thee well.

p

ISMN M-5024-4093-0

9 790502 440930