*1. Al - though you're far a-way      And life is sad and grey,      I have a scheme, a      o try;
 *2. We'll learn to love a-new,      The sim-ple joys we knew      And shared to - ge - ther, in      d day;

* These two verses appear in the sheet music of 'We'll Gather Lilies', but not in the libretto of the musical 'Perchance to Dream'. They can, if desired, be omitted in favour of the version in the musical, in which case jump to the end of bar 8 to begin, as per the first recording (in 1945, by Muriel Barron and Olive Gilbert). As a third alternative, consider the possibility of getting the end of both worlds' and omitting verse 2 (ie go straight on from the end of the 1st verse to bar 65).
